

CHRISTOPHER E. WILSON

EXPERIENCE

Amazon.com Inc.

Senior Manager, Public Policy

July 2017 – Present

- Lead the company's overall Internet governance advocacy strategy
- Coordinate the company's engagement at the Internet Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN), including serving as the company's representative on ICANN's Business Constituency
- Serve as the company's primary representative before the United Nations, including the Internet Governance Forum (IGF) and the International Telecommunication Union (ITU)
- Represent the company on pertinent U.S. delegations in regard to high-level international telecommunication conferences
- Facilitate the company's interaction with the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (OECD) pertaining to its digital economy activities
- Liaise with relevant civil society and digital rights organizations to work on matters of mutual interest and concern

21st Century Fox

Vice President, Government Affairs

March 2015 – June 2017

- Create and execute the company's strategy relating to Internet governance and international media and telecommunications policy, including work undertaken at ICANN and the United Nations
- Represent the company before the U.S. State Department, U.S. Commerce Department, and the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative, among others
- Coordinate policy development with like-minded companies and associations
- Serve as Chair, ICANN's Business Constituency, January 2016 – June 2017

Time Warner Inc.

Vice President, Global Public Policy

June 2013 – January 2015

- Represented the company before Congress, in particular the House and Senate Commerce Committees, and other federal policymakers
- Served as company advocate and expert on mass media, telecommunications, and Internet governance policy matters
- Nurtured third-party relationships for the company with the technology industry and conservative organizations

TechAmerica

Vice President, Federal Government Affairs

May 2010 – June 2013

(January 2012 – June 2013)

Director and Counsel, E-Commerce & Telecommunications (May 2010 – January 2012)

- Regularly managed, scheduled and organized the technology association's privacy, cloud computing, telecommunications, intellectual property, and Internet governance committees, including facilitating engagement with key government personnel and developing consensus policy positions among senior company representatives
- Provided cogent written and oral advocacy before federal agencies, including the FCC and FTC, and pertinent Congressional policymakers and staff

Wiley Rein LLP
Associate

September 2008 – December 2009

- Conducted timely legal research, analyzed issues and drafted petitions and comments in a variety of complex federal telecommunications regulatory proceedings

Drinker Biddle & Reath LLP
Law Clerk and Government Affairs Specialist

September 2001 – June 2008

- Assisted in the development and implementation of federal communications and copyright public policy via research, analysis and advocacy
- Managed the firm's Political Action Committee and successfully ensured the firm's compliance with federal and state ethics and lobbying laws

U.S. Senator Arlen Specter
Legislative Aide

October 1997 – August 2001

- Assisted in the production of legislative hearings and drafted written materials regarding Congressional oversight of the Department of Justice
- Drafted legislative correspondence and provided parliamentary counsel

EDUCATION

American University, Washington College of Law, J.D., 2008
Cum Laude (Top 11%), Administrative Law Review, Staff Member (2005-2007)

Vanderbilt University, B.A., Public Policy Studies, 1997